COUNCIL NEWS

- Apologies and Belated Happy Birthday to Father Zarsky. His birthday was blank on my database, but has now been filled in.
- We will hold balloting for Knight, Family and Rookie of the Year at the march meeting.
- Welcome new Knights Travis Muzny, Al Horak Jr. and Sal Zaccagnino.
- Worthy Field Agent Doug Supak welcomed the new Knights . He reported that Texas is now number one in membership at 94,720. Annuities are yielding 3 - 3.5% and dividends are stable. He thanked us for all of our support.
- Janet Valigura sent a thank you note for enrollment in the Clerical Endowment fund.
- Get your email address to Larry See if you wish to get the newsletter by email.
- Relevant Radio has offered to advertise our upcoming events.
- Thank you to Sam Perry for installing the new sink and Jimmy Urbanosky for making legs for it.
- Thanks to all who helped with the free throw contest.
- Thanks from Jesse Paul Martinez for our monetary assistance to the seminarians to attend the walk for life in Washington DC.
- Jimmy Matcek is cooking for our annual Law Enforcement appreciation dinner at the March Meeting. We will be donating $500 dollars to Crime Stoppers during the dinner.
- Meet at the gym Saturday March 5th to peel potatoes for the Festival on Sunday March 6th.
- Our festival is Sunday March 6th at the SPJST hall. Meal tickets will be $8 this year. Your help is appreciated.
- The Founder's day banquet will be after Mass, Sunday April 10th in the gym.
- Jay Barrow encourages all of us to support the bill to require women to view a sonogram prior to an abortion. Also, 40 Days For Life has helped save 781 babies in College Station.
- Albin Horak reported some of our youth are participating in Bible study and that the CYM has open gym every two weeks. Haley Zavodny and Megan Gilbert were 2 of the 12 animators at the recent DCYC convention. There was record attendance of 1800 this year. Thanks to Jerry and Becky Zavodny for chaperoning and all the Knights for the supporting our youth.
- Meet every Thursday during Lent at the gym at 5 to cut and season fish for the fish fry the next day. Meet starting between noon and 2:30 on Friday to start prep for the fish fry that day.
- Maurice Jurina has volunteered to chair our food drive, Details to follow later.
- Vance McManus thanked the council for their prayers.
- District Deputy Pat Morgan welcomed our new members.
- Thank you to John Vollentine and Richard Neal for bringing the drinks
- Thank you to Vance McManus, Jeff McManus and Floyd Fritcher for cooking. Also to Mike Thompson's wife Carol for sending dessert.
- Let Grand Knight Jerry Zavodny know if you are interested in serving at the VFW concession at Chilifest. A short training course is required. You will get free admission Friday and free parking, admission, and meals on Saturday. The VFW will also make a donation to our council for your help.

PRAYER LIST

INSURANCE NEWS

And then there were two.

Of the hundreds of insurance companies in North America, only 2 have maintained top ratings by A.M. Best and Standard & Poor's, as well as certification from the insurance Marketplace Standards Association for ethical business practices...

...But only one gave $165 million to protect, promote and provide for the things that are important to us as Catholic's and to improve the communities in which we live in!
