COUNCIL NEWS

- The May chicken Barbeque has been canceled due to a conflict with the Caldwell Volunteer Fire Department fundraiser.
- Happy Belated Birthday to Fred Cruz. We missed him in the March newsletter.
- There is a First Degree ceremony tentatively scheduled at 7:30 prior to the May 5th meeting.
- Grand Knight Jerry Zavodny reported that the festival was very successful and expressed his thanks to all who helped.
- We received a thank you card from Tanya Couch and the Rainbow Room for the coats we donated.
- We received a thank you card from Bobbi Lena and the local food bank for our donations. Our $1,200 donation was also matched.
- Frankie Wolf reported that we have collected $4,770 in scholarship memorial donations through out the year. He also thanked the Council for our prayers and enrolling him in the Clerical Endowment fund.
- Thank you to Jimmy Matcek for catering the Founder's day banquet.
- Thank you to Jimmy Urbanosky for building an additional cooker and donating 18 bottles of propane during the fish fries.
- There will be an ad hoc scholarship meeting immediately following the May officers meeting. Any who wish to participate are welcome.
- Jay Barrow recommended that we all stop and pray for life in front of Planned Parenthood when we can.
- Albin Horak expressed his thanks for our support of our youth. A group will be going to Godstock this year on April 30th.

- Dorman Pullin expressed his thanks for our prayers and enrolling him in the Clerical Endowment fund.
- Congratulations to Thomas Franke For becoming a grandparent with the arrival of Gavin Chmelar.
- Congratulations to Sir Knights Ken and Gavin Bartnesky for attaining the 4th degree.
- The “Wall That Heals (the Moving Viet Nam wall) will be on display at Hornet field from April 27th thru May 1st. Viewing is from 8 AM to 6 PM.
- Worthy Field Agent Doug Supak informed us that the new disability income policy has been approved. Contact him or Jody if you might be interested. He also thanked us for our continued good works.
- District deputy Pat Morgan (in his role as festival chairman) thanked us for all of our help and support during the festival.
- Tanks to John and Richard for bringing the Drinks.
- Thanks to Jerry, Ronnie, et al for cooking.
- Jimmy Matcek will be cooking a Cinco de Mayo meal for the May meeting.
- The June Officers meeting will be Tuesday May 31st due to the Memorial Day holiday.
