NEWS

Our next meeting will be in Rockdale on September 9. We will begin with a meal, and meeting after.

The Kolache Festival kicks off at 9:00 AM, September 14 this year. There are some new things and arrangements done to make it easier to get around to your favorite parts of the festival, so make plans to come early and stay late for some good food and entertainment.

Holy Rosary Parish in Frenstat will be having our parish festival on Sunday, October 6. The meal starts at 11 AM, consisting of BBQ brisket, sausage, and all the trimmings. There will be music by Mark Halata, beginning at 10:00 AM, and will continue until 1:00 PM, and the auction beginning at 1:30 PM. There will be a country store, pastry stand, and other things that might interest you.

Our sympathy goes out to the family of Donald Hubenak, who passed away Saturday, August 31. Don was a member of our Assembly for a number of years, before moving and becoming a member of Assembly 1131 in El Campo. Viewing begins at 5 PM Tuesday at the Triska Funeral Home, 612 Merchant St. in El Campo, with a KC Rosary at 7 PM. The Mass of Christian Burial will be at St. John Nepomucene Church in New Taiton, TX. on Wednesday at 10 AM.

My thanks to Sir Knight David Bonham for replacing me as Faithful Purser, and to our Assembly for entrusting me with this position.

St. Cajetan August 7

Born into a noble family in 1480, St. Cajetan spent his adult life as a priest at a time not dissimilar to our own when priests and bishops led scandalous lives. In addition to their immorality, a large number of clergy were terribly uneducated. Added to this was the wickedness of people in general and the total corruption of governing officials. Without question the Church in the early 1500s was in very bad shape. In many ways it is comparable to the scandals rocking the Church today and the corruption of the "swamp" in Washington, D.C.

It was during this time, in 1517 to be precise, that Martin Luther led a revolt which resulted in the birth and spread of Protestantism. Rather than follow the heretical Luther, St. Cajetan sought to reform the Church from within. Indeed, throughout his priestly ministry, St. Cajetan did battle against what was becoming known as Lutheranism.

Relatively late in life, St. Cajetan founded a religious order named the Theatines Clerks Regular. They vowed to live morally upright, study Scripture, preach, and provide pastoral care to the poor. St. Cajetan and his followers met with resistance and open hostility from both laity and clergy unwilling to reform their lives. Such has always been the way for all true Church reformers and such will always be the case; as Bishop Thomas Tobin of Rhode Island has learned. In early June of this year Bp. Tobin warned the parents of his diocese to keep their children from taking part in any "Pride" events that took place in June for fear they would be exposed to grave sin. For this he incurred the wrath of the godless Left, as well as from some of his own priests. Bp. Tobin is a modern day St. Cajetan.
