Grand Knight's Report

Dear Brother Knights and Families

This fraternal year is almost over. We are on track to qualify for Star Council. That shows how much good work you all have been doing this year. It takes a lot of us working together to achieve that and we have. Please keep up that good work and we will continue to enrich the lives of everyone in our community.

Good Friday Senior Center Lunch went very well thanks to all the workers we had for that event. It is much appreciated by the Seniors.

Seventeen people were able to donate during our Blood Drive. Thanks to Javier Espinales for setting it up and Leno Trevino providing breakfast.

Food handlers permit training had about 30 Knights and Ladies thanks to Bill Mueller for setting that up.

From the State Convention: Brother Robert Sibug is the 3rd quarter Top Recruiter in the Diocese and our own Brother Chris Rodriguez was elected to represent the diocese at the Supreme Convention in August.

I want to congratulate all the officers elected to serve for our next fraternal year. The induction ceremony will be the evening of June 20. Everyone in the council is invited but we will need RSVPs so we know how many to prepare for. More details to follow.

We will be having our annual Independence Day picnic after the parade on July 4.

June 12—Team 4 Paul (Tye) Tyquiengco (Business Meeting)

Happy Father's Day to all Fathers!

Lecturer's Corner

Never Rejected, Always Loved!

“I will not reject anyone who comes to me.” Jn. 6:37

This little line says much about our Lord's Divine Mercy. It is a line repeated often in St. Faustina's Diary of Divine Mercy and it's a statement that many people need to hear.

Why is this important to hear? Because, very often, we can carry the burden of rejection. Without even realizing it, there are many who have experienced rejection in their life and, as a result, are afraid to be vulnerable in a relationship out of fear of being hurt. Once you have been hurt in a relationship, you proceed with caution. This hurt can come from a family member, spouse, friend or anyone we've tried to reach out to in love only to receive hurt and rejection. And that hurts.

Jesus' words are especially important because they help to reassure us that Jesus is trustworthy. It is true that we can come to Him, open our hearts to Him, become completely vulnerable to Him, and He will treat us with the utmost tenderness, respect, kindness and care. Jesus will treat us with more care than we even treat ourselves!

Reflect upon these words of Jesus today. Say them over and over. “I will not reject anyone who comes to me.” Know that He wants you to come to Him and to open your heart to Him completely. Doing so will allow Him to manifest His love for you and enable you to trust Him beyond what you ever imagined possible.

Lord, I want to come to You in my sufferings and rejection. I know You are the Divine Healer and will bring comfort to my soul. Help me to trust You and to let You love me. Jesus, I trust in You

DIVINE MERCY MOMENT

Jesus said in St. Faustina's diary, “I demand from you deeds of mercy, which are to arise out of love for Me. You are to show mercy to your neighbors always and everywhere.... I am giving you three ways of exercising mercy toward your neighbor; the first by deed, the second by word, the third by prayer...” (D-742) If we choose prayer and we meditate on His Passion He says, “There is more merit to one hour of meditation on My sorrowful Passion than there is to a whole year of flagellation that draws blood; the contemplation of My painful wounds is of great profit to you and it brings Me great joy...” (D-369)

Programs

Faith:

Challenge by Supreme Chaplain Archbishop William E. Lori:

Jesus said, “My children, I will be with you only a little while longer. I give you a new commandment: love one another. As I have loved you, so you also should love one another” (Gospel for May 19, Jn. 13:34).

“I give you a new commandment: love one another,” we hear in the Gospel reading. We've heard this saying of Jesus before, but do we personalize it this and truly know it to be true? Statistically, we as Catholics in America today are not renowned for loving one another to the point that we risk sharing our faith with others. One recent poll found that only 6% of Catholics characterized sharing their faith as a “high priority.” But Jesus invites us to do more. He does not call the equipped; he equips the called. And each one of us is called to love one another in the most profound way—by caring about others' eternal well-being.

This Month's Challenge

This month I challenge you to invite one person out for coffee, to your home, or an event at your parish. Tell them what you enjoy about the Catholic faith. Secondly, if they have been away from the Catholic Church, invite them back. If they are not Catholic, ask them if they would consider joining. Either way, be welcoming and nonjudgmental when they give their response.

The Knights Choir will sing on Sunday, June 16 2019 at Good Shepherd Church at the 8:00 AM Mass. Rehearsal is at 7:15 AM. We are looking forward for more Knights to join us. Interested, please contact Larry Gladu, PGK (210) 659-3187.
