NEW FLAGS FOR COUNCIL 7014 are a gift from the local branch of the Texas Workforce Commission represented by Bro. Mario Casarez. At the recent Chamber of Commerce banquet our rather faded flags age and condition was noticed by Workforce officials who offered new flags poles and stands. KC members accepting the flags are (L to R) Frank Garcia, Robert Zapata, GK Kenny Svrcek, Nick Guzman, Mario Casarez, Tom Alejandro, Phil Konarik, David Ehler and Chad Ehler.

From the June Officers and Council Meetings: GK Kenny Svrcek reviewed the calendar for upcoming events and KC Hall bookings for a not so busy month of July with no Saturday bookings yet, Super Bingo and the usual meetings and Food Pantry/Food Truck visits. Council Officers Installation with open meeting and meal on Thursday, July 18th. (see calendar)

- COUNCIL MEMORIAL COMMITTEE reports that Perpetual Clerical Endowments have been presented to the families of Bro. Jerome Kocian and Bro. John Santellano. Perpetual Clerical Endowments have been ordered for Bro. Wesley Corder. Mrs. Johnnie Matl and Evelyn Julia Boehm Barcak (mother of William Barcak).
- SUPER BINGO for June had a light turnout, but jackpots were not reduced. Three “event bingo” games were played. The floor workers, the kitchen and bar help was very good as were the hamburgers, nachos and desserts.
- FOOD PANTRY VOLUNTEERS for the June delivery of 4500# of food items were Milton Frei, Phil Konarik, Tom Alejandro, Pete Ramirez, Harry Ormsby Roman Razo and Kenny Svrcek. The Capital Area Food Bank trucks also visited the KC hall parking lot Thursday, June 6th and 20th. Not sure who opened the hall for restroom access. Thank you all for taking time out of your day to help those in need.
- COUNCIL OFFICERS ELECTIONS were held during the June council meeting. Nominations for all offices were open. There were no nominations from the floor and the current officers agreed to be reelected by acclamation. The only exception was the 3-year Trustee position as Nick Guzman was elected. Going off was 1-year Trustee Clint Butler, who had served for 3 years. (See the list above.)
- THANK YOU NOTES were received from all four KC Scholarship winners: Karley Leopold, Katy Krenek, Stephani Pantaleon and from Hutto High School on behalf of David Ybarra.
- MAYFEST 2019 WRAP UP AND 2020 PLANNING meeting is scheduled for Monday July 8th at 6:30 pm in the Religious Education Building at St. Joseph’s. All interested are asked to attend and share thoughts and ideas. The 2019 Mayfest results were included in last week’s church bulletin.
- DONATIONS TO AND FROM COUNCIL 7014 were reported as follows from the Bingo Fund: $1000 to Texas A&M, $1000 to Temple College, $500 to Blinn College (scholarships), $125 to the Clerical Endowment Fund (memorials), $200 Chamber of Commerce Summer Fan Drive, $211 Meals on Wheels. Donations received this period were in the amounts of $2000, $1000 and $150. Thanks very much to those donors!
